A. C. Holland,
Committee.

Report of Committee on Ordination was adopted.

Rev. J. R. Vann was received as an ordained minister from the Free Will Baptist Church.

Report of Committee on Missions.

Since Christ has given us the great commission: Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature, and still more than half the world's population is seeking salvation apart from Christ, and today we have a number of consecrated men and women that God has called to go, waiting to be sent; we need to pray earnestly that God will give us a greater vision, and awaken in us the consciousness that many precious souls for which Christ has died are dying continually without any hope in Him, we recommend,

1. That each pastor preach at least one interesting sermon on foreign missions at each of his churches at least once every three months.

2. That each pastor see that missionary societies are organized in each of his churches, urging each member and others to join.

3. That each society meet at least once a month, keeping ever before the people the need, that special prayer be made in behalf of the missionaries on the field, that we may better understand the commandment of Christ to love thy neighbor as thyself.

Signed,

Mrs. R. L. Whitley,
Jerome Hodges,
J. G. Crocker,
Committee.

Report adopted.

Report of Committee on Finance.

In this present world there is no line of business or institution, whether secular or religious, but that needs to be financed in some way. There are very special and definite instructions given to us in the Word of God as to how to provide means for the carrying on of the work of the Lord, yet there seems also to be such variations in conditions from time to time, and strictly local conditions effecting certain churches, that it has seemed impractical to find any fixed plan that did not require adjustment from time to time to meet varying conditions.

Every person uniting himself with the church takes upon himself the responsibility of supporting the church and its institutions, and also in identifying himself with the people of God, he assumes all the obligations that the Lord lays upon His people, and these should be the most sacred obligations assumed to every person taking them.

According to the Bible we believe that every child of God properly owes a tenth of his income to the Lord, whether it be in cash or products from the farm, and that this obligation should be paid in the spirit of obedience and with the faith that God will bestow greater blessings. "Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse and prove me now herewith saith the Lord, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing that there shall not be room enough to receive it."

In addition to the tithes we are to make free-will offerings to the work of the Lord according to our ability, knowing that the Lord loveth a cheerful giver and that He has promised to give in return to us, good measure, pressed down, heaped up and running over.

Beyond this even there is the privilege of such sacrifices as any one may have the will to make, as in the case of many immediately following the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, who sold all their possessions and laid them at the apostles feet to be distributed according as every man had need.

If all our people would cease robbing God by withholding more than is meet, and would become liberal in their offerings, not only to the extent of their ability, but of a sacrificial spirit even beyond what they feel able to do, every phase of our work could be provided for, and our churches would only need to make up their annual budgets and make proper distribution of the funds.

In the distribution of the funds of each local church, we would recommend that the officers of the church, or a special finance committee elected for the purpose, make the proper distribution of the funds, giving due consideration to each phase of the work.

We would recommend also that each church canvass its membership at the beginning Quarter of the Conference year, and fix an amount to be raised during the year, and work diligently throughout the year to reach their goal.

Respectfully submitted,

A. H. Butler,
J. G. Spivey,
J. A. Culbreth,
Committee.

Report adopted.

Report fo Committee on Evangelism.

Seeing the great need of evangelizing in our Conference, we, your Committee on Evangelism submit the following recommendations:

1. That each district conference elect a committee at the first Quarterly Conference of the year to study evangelism and to try to work out some plan whereby we may be able to evangelize the needy fields in our Conference.

2. That the preachers of this Conference who own gospel tents use them in needy fields as much as possible.

3. That general evangelists prayerfully consider the need of the gospel being preached in new fields and that a more strenuous effort be put forth to evangelize territory that has been neglected.

4. That each local evangelist preach at least thirty-five times each year and at least twelve sermons in places where we have no organized church.

5. That all our evangelists that work at some trade, be asked to try to find a position in some town that does not have a Pentecostal Holiness Church and open a respectable mission in said town when it is possible to do so.

6. That all of the pastors and churches of this Conference put forth a greater effort than ever before to evangelize the territory in reach of them, cooperating with the evangelist in every possible manner, giving them meetings in their churches when it is possible to do so, especially through the winter season.

7. That earnest, consecrated and sacrificial prayer be made for the salvation of precious souls in the new fields of our Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

T. M. Bizzell,
E. M. Bryant,
W. T. Merritt,
Committee.

Report adopted.

Report of Committee on Sunday Schools.

The Sunday School being one of the most important institutions of the church, we recommend:

1. That each church maintain an all the year Sunday School, and that each member of the church be expected to attend as regularly as possible, and cooperate in the work and in securing the attendance of every body else in the community as far as practical.

2. That in the election of the Superintendents of our Sunday Schools and all the other officers and teachers, great care should be taken to secure such as are intensely interested in the work and capable of making the schools interesting to others, so that we may have the best leadership, the most enthusiastic interest, the most efficient work, and the best spiritual applications of the lessons from the standpoint of our distinctive teachings on holiness and Pentecost.

3. That teacher's meetings be held each week, when possible, to study and discuss the lesson for the following sunday for the purpose of the most effective applications of the truths to practical living.

4. That every department of the Sunday School receive due consideration, so that proper division of time may be allotted to each phase of its work.

5. That our own Pentecostal Literature be used in all our Sunday Schools, and that special effort be made to instruct our students in the doctrines of our church, and when applicable and appropriate Scriptures are used in the lesson, to apply them to our distinctive teachings on sanctification as a second definite work of grace, and the Pentecostal Baptism of the Spirit with its initial evidence of speaking in other tongues as the Spirit gives utterance.

6. That all our Superintendents and teachers in all our schools be urged to use our Pentecostal Sunday School Magazine which has now been restored to our line of S. S. Literature. In this Magazine there are three most helpful departments in addition to the regular lesson notes as appear in our Quarterlies. There is the Historical setting of the lesson, and the spiritual application of its truths and the children's department, each department being written by different persons, but in perfect harmony as to teachings, and supplemental in rounding out the full lesson teachings.

7. That all our Sunday Schools take upon themselves some outside service that would make them helpful to others and practical in carrying on the work committed to the church; and for this, we recommend the work of the Falcon Orphanage, which is a Pentecostal institution within the boundaries of our Conference, that is not only worthy but needing our fullest sympathy and help.

8. That we have a special service in the interest of our Sunday School work, during, and in connection with, each Annual Conference of our church.

9. We suggest that at the earliest time that it might seem practical that it would be a great help to our Sunday School work to have a Conference Sunday School Secretary, whose business it would be to visit all the Sunday Schools of the whole Conference during the Conference year for the purpose of stirring up and maintaining proper interest in the work, equalizing as far as possible the advantages of all our schools, and standardizing to a great extent all our Sunday School work.

Respectfully submitted,

J. A. Culbreth,
E. L. Johnson,
J. A. Howard,
Committee.

Report adopted.

Report of Committee on Orphanage Work.

In the sixth chapter of The Acts we read of the action taken by the Apostolic Church immediately following the outpouring of the Holy Ghost on the day of Pentecost, how that they appointed seven of the best men in the church and ordained them to the work of caring for their widows. The blessings of the Lord followed their action so that a great revival was the result, the number of the disciples being greatly multiplied and the Word of God increased. Taking the action of the apostles as our example as well as an outstanding evidence of the importance of such work, we recommend that all our churches as such, or through their Sunday Schools, take definite action to make monthly offerings or contributions in some systematic and organized way to show our interest in orphanage work.

Since we have no church orphanage, and our church, both in annual and general conferences, has endorsed and commended the work of The Falcon Orphanage, and pledged its moral support to it, we recommend that we give the most liberal financial support to The Falcon Orphanage consistent with our ability and the demands of other phases of our church work.

Respectfully submitted,

J. A. Culbreth,
W. B. Godwin,
R. W. Grantham,
Committee.

Report adopted.

Report of Committee on Memoirs.

We, your Committee on Memoirs, beg leave to submit the following report:

Whereas the Lord in His all wise providence has seen fit to call our elderly brother Rev. J. C. Daniels, who was a minister of excellent character, and whereas our heavenly Father has shown His favor by calling our Brother E. D. Morris almost out of a blessed prayer meeting in which he testified that he was ready to go, and whereas our beloved Brother M. S. Paramore was called home to rest from his labors, from the battle field on earth to his reward in glory; wherefore be it resolved that we as a Conference body even though we appreciate the contribution these godly men were making to the cause we represent and we do feel a great loss, yet we do not question the wisdom of Almighty God, but do humbly submit to our loss in the departure of these dear brethren and rejoice in their gain of eternal glory.

Be it further resolved that we extend to the relatives and friends our sympathy and that this report be printed in the Pentecostal Holiness Advocate and in the Minutes of the Conference, and a copy be sent to the bereaved families of these departed ministers.

Signed,

W. J. Noble,
S. C. Hodges,
E. M. Bryant,
Committee.
